Welcome!

22nd October - 10:30am-1pm

Preaching the Women of the Bible workshop

(University of Aberdeen King's College Chapel)

Liz Shercliff is a preacher, writer and researcher who focuses on rediscovering the women of the Bible. Their stories address particularly contemporary issues such as the denial of women's rights, the increasingly contentious nature of public debate, and the failure of memory in the church of these important women.
